International Student Outreach

Moriah Cobb is organizing food for the Christian Challenge Family Group Bible Studies. Family groups are an opportunity for international students to be invited into an American home for a meal and to study the Bible with some American students. Moriah could use some help providing some of the food for these groups. If you would like to help preach the Gospel to the nations by making a meal or part of a meal, you can sign up today; Moriah will be in the foyer with a sign-up sheet after the worship service. Or, call Moriah at 785-337-9313.
