Bible Readers in 2020

Today's passage is Psalm 119; the longest chapter in the Bible and located about in the center. It is an acrostic with the verses in each stanza starting with the same

Hebrew letter, e.g., the 8 verses in the first stanza start with the first Hebrew letter, aleph. Except for the introduction (vs. 1-3) and vs. 115, every verse is addressed directly to God. This is obviously a well thought-out and planned song/poem.
