Worship Service Plan

June 7 as our first date to begin gathering together for worship. I know some of you are ready to be back together now, and for others, June 7 might still seem too early for you. I encourage you to continue praying that we would be able to gather together beginning June 7, and that God would prepare our hearts to joyfully make the adjustments we need to make as we meet together. More details will be coming related to the plans and changes needed. And please do keep in mind that we are in a continually changing situation, and if the seriousness of the pandemic worsens, our plans may also need to change, but I am really looking forward to being back together!”

The Flag still floats un-blotted with defeat!
But, ah, the blood that keeps its ripples red,
The starry lives that keep its field alight.

Bible Readers in 2020

This week you’re reading the Songs of Solomon. We’re reminded of Father Mulcahy on M*A*S*H who, noting the number of Solomon’s wives and concubines, said,

“Solomon had a lot to sing about!”

*Use everything as if it belongs to God.
It does. You are his steward.*
