Postlude

Now redemption, long expected, comes in solemn splendor near;
all the saints this world rejected
thrill the trumpet sound to hear:
Alleluia! Alleluia! Alleluia!
See the day of God appear!

Helen Clark,

our oldest and longest-term church member, died Friday night at Meadowlark Retirement Comm. She was loved by all and an example to all.

Perhaps we can liken our lives to the glass in a window in that we should be letting God shine through us so that others can know Him. Unfortunately, some of our “windows” are dirty and smudged due to sin; some are frosted by our obsession with all our daily activities; maybe our past has left us “broken”; the troubles in our lives can be like rain hindering God’s light from clearly shining through; our lack of knowledge of scripture maybe be like glass that is so uneven that God’s image is warped out of shape; reflecting glass might represent our ego and self-interest; colored glass our biases; and then, sometimes, we just don’t care about whether or not others can see God through us and we have pulled down the shade. Maybe it’s time that we ask God fix, repair, and clean our “windows” so that they let the “Son-shine” through!
