Worship Today

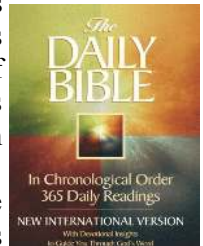

This is the third week that we have been back gathering for worship here. Others will be continuing to worship online with us. This will be the “modus operandi” for a while as we slowly & cautiously return to some type of normalcy.

Sunday School This Week

We have started Sunday School again at 9:15 am. We will provide for “social distancing” in all the classes and it would be considerate if you wore a mask until we’re completely out of danger. There will be no nursery.

Bible Readers in 2020

Over and over God warns his people through various prophets (Amos in this week’s readings) of impending hardships and exile because of sin which is so rampant. Spiritual decline continues more or less unabated!

When I was a boy of fourteen, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be twenty-one, I was astonished at how much the old man had learned in seven years.

MARK TWAIN (1835–1910)

A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society.

BILLY GRAHAM

The greatest gift I ever had came from God; I call him Dad!
