Announcements, etc.

Sunday School

We have started Sunday School again at 9:15 am. We will provide for “social distancing” in all the classes and request that all wear masks anytime they are less than six feet from another person. Until we’re completely out of danger this will be procedure. There will be no nursery.

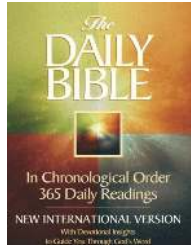

Worship

This is the fourth week that we have been back gathering for worship here as well as online. This will be the “modus operandi” for a while as we slowly & cautiously return to some type of normalcy. Because of the recent “up-tick” in the number of COVID-19 cases locally, we ask that you be aware of the potential danger that you or others pose, especially for those in the high-risk categories.

Free Book

There are copies of a condensed version of Randy Alcorn’s book “Heaven” on the table in the foyer for people to pick up if they would like to read it.

Bible Readers in 2020

In this week’s readings is Isaiah 9:1-7 which is one of the best-known and best-loved and most remarkable passages in all of the Bible. This is among continued dire prophecies about Judah, Israel, and just about every other nation in the surrounding area.

Truth consists of having the same idea about something that God has.
