

*Welcome to the Morning Worship
at College Heights Baptist on the twelfth of July, 2020*

service begins at 10:30 AM

*It is good to give thanks to the Lord, to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
to declare your steadfast love in the morning,
and your faithfulness by night,
For you, O Lord, have made me glad by your work;
at the works of your hands I sing for joy.*

Psalm 92:1,2,4 (NLT)

Sunday School and Worship

Please observe "social distancing" while in the building and wear masks (except the pastor while in the pulpit and the vocalists while leading the music). Until further notice this will be our procedure. Sorry, but there will be no nursery at this time.

Deacon Nominations

Every year at this time we prepare to elect two deacons to begin serving a three-year terms at the end of the summer. (George Wyatt and John Ball rotate off this year and are not eligible for one year.) Today is the last time to submit nominations. Ballots are available in the foyer; follow the directions on the ballot and place your nominations in the Offering Box.

Farewell

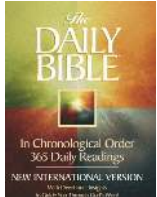

This is Luke Casada's last Sunday with us as he has accepted the music leader position at a church in Solomon, KS. Thanks, Luke, for being a drummer, guitarist, pianist, and all-around technical guru. Good luck, Luke!

We must be so heavenly minded that we are compelled to be of earthly good!

Bible Readers in 2020

After a few years of revival, Manasseh becomes king of Judah and the sins that follow are one of the main reasons the nation will be essentially destroyed within the century. Isaiah prophecy of the coming Savior in chapter 53 is for your meditation this week:

"But he was pierced for our transgressions, he was crushed for our iniquities; the punishment that brought us peace was upon him."

Blessed are those who see the hand of God in the haphazard, inexplicable, and seemingly senseless circumstances of life.
