Postlude

The Bible's accounts show that miracles —dramatic, show-stopping miracles like many of us still long for—simply do not foster deep faith.

Lincoln & Moriah's Last Sunday

with us is TODAY. They've been a blessing to us and we will miss them very much. Immediately after worship service we will have a fare-well fellowship meal (pulled-pork, baked potatoes, and all the fix'ns). Everyone is invited!

State Missions Emphasis

At this time every year we promote mission activities in our Kansas-Nebraska area. Today we will hear from two student summer missionaries whose work was supported by the Viola Webb Missions Offerings. Our goal this year is $1200.

Local Elections

Tuesday, November 2nd

Be informed, pray for guidance, and then remember to vote!

Trunk or Treat

NEXT Sunday, October 31st
5:00-7:00 pm

We will be hosting this event again this year and we need volunteers to help out. A sign up sheet is in the back. Here are some ideas that you might do: decorate a trunk, greet people, provide candy, or lead a game. You might even come up with a new idea.

Virtually all the miracles attributed to Jesus are directly associated with some lesson he was trying to teach or some insight he wanted to give to his disciples. The real question to be asked about any miracle is not how it happened but why: what was God saying to us in this significant act?
